1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 1, 13, after "second", --sub-field-- has been inserted (see claim 3 line 2).

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to show or fairly suggest a method for processing video pictures for display on a display device having a plurality of luminous elements corresponding to the pixels of a picture wherein the time of a video frame or field is divided into a plurality of N sub-fields during which the luminous elements can be activated for light emission in small pulses corresponding to a sub-field code word of n bits used for coding the p possible video levels lighting a pixel, having the combinations as claimed, including the steps of determining if pictures are static pictures or moving pictures, in case of static pictures, processing video pictures using a first sub-field encoding method adapted to pictures when no motion is detected, and in case of moving pictures, processing video pictures using a second sub-field encoding method reducing dynamic false contour effect adapted to pictures when motion is detected, as recited in the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
